NOTE FROM MELISSA

Dear Terrylynne,

Moving Day! By the time my next newsletter arrives in your inbox, I will have a new address. I am sort of amazed that it is all happening so quickly though in truth it started 6 months ago. And as of this writing, I'm not sure of my Atlanta whereabouts except to say I know where I want to go but we are in negotiations so I can't say more.

My garden's last hurrah! I'm overwhelmed at the sight of my garden these days as it seems all the hard work of the last 3 years has finally paid off. Everything is in bloom from my lavender and pink topped hydrangeas to my sea of golden lilies, my plum colored butterfly bushes to my creamy white hostas, even my 6' tall amethyst gladiolas are coming out for one last show just for me. I feel so amazing to know that working at something without expectation but a lot of hope really has blossomed.

stagersLIST.com go now! I found another option for selling off some of my goods and furnishings. stagersLIST.com was founded by two savvy stagers on the West Coast in May and we have partnered to offer my goods to stagers, designers, and more nationwide with 10% of the proceeds going to Habitat for Humanity, but only if you buy before June 16! I'm even including a copy of my book Celebrate Your Life! with every purchase. Go check it out.

BUSINESS BUILDING BLOCKS

When Less Really IS More

Do you want to know the fastest way to get back a chunk of time? Get back money? Get back your life? PURGE. That's right folks; Spring Cleaning is way over due. I wouldn't have tackled it but for my move, but I can safely say that it has been astounding what I have found taking up space, time, and money.

It is easy to understand how it takes up space, but I bet you're wondering what I mean when I say time and money. Consider this, most of us have a finite amount of space and when that is full what do we do? We store it! This is got to be one of the greatest errors we make both in business and personally. Unless it is business records needed for tax purposes or such, if you are storing it you aren't using it, get rid of it.
